

Updated 2/22/16

- *Notice of Faculty or A/P Staff Appointment form (including page 5 – Statement of Purpose for Collection of SS #s)
 - Make sure there are no conflicting appointments on campus (Ask employee and/or check HRMS)
 - Identify Position ID if replacement. Leave Position ID blank if new position.
 - Verify salary rate
 - If A/P less than 100%, include the following statement on page two: “The employee and the University acknowledge that the employee will not work more than 40 hours in any one workweek.”
 - If A/P, minimum actual salary must equal $1,972/month or greater (Due to FSLA changes in May 2005)
 - Foreign nationals must have appropriate work authorization such as F-1 with optical practical training, J-1, or H-1B. Appointment dates may not precede or exceed work authorization dates (Contact the Center for International Education if questions arise regarding an F-1 or J-1 Visa. Contact Melissa Gibbons in the Provost’s Office if questions arise regarding an H-1B Visa.)
 - Foreign nationals hired on continuing appointments must have the following contingency statement on the second page of the Notice of Appointment form:

"This appointment is contingent upon the appointee's continuing ability to comply with verification requirements of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. Loss of appropriate authorization to work in the U.S. shall result in automatic termination of this appointment."

 - *Official Transcripts of Highest Degree Earned/Required for the Position. “Issued to Student” transcripts are acceptable if official.
 - Make sure official transcript reflects the degree earned and date awarded
 - If the degree is from a foreign university that does not produce transcripts, a copy of the original diploma is acceptable only if the department signs and dates the copy verifying that it is a copy of the original
 - If the degree is not yet posted, then an original memo on letterhead from the Graduate School, Registrar, or Provost is acceptable (a memo from the Department Grad Program/Studies is not acceptable)
 - If ABD verification is required, an original, scanned, or faxed memo on letterhead from the Committee Chair is acceptable
 - E-scripts are acceptable if the department signs and dates the printed copy verifying the validity of the electronic version. As a reminder, the E-script must be sent to the hiring unit, not the student
 - If hire is contingent upon degree completion, contingency statement is needed. See Dean’s/Director’s Office for template. Include evidence about the candidate’s degree status, such as a letter from the candidate’s dissertation advisor indicating a realistic completion date.
