The screenshot shows the Southern Illinois University website page for Promotion and Tenure Information. The page is titled "Promotion and Tenure Information" and is part of the Provost's Office. The main content area includes a list of documents and links, such as "Provost's Promotion and Tenure Dossier Preparation Guidelines – 2017" (updated May 5, 2017), "CBA Article 13 - Promotion and Tenure", "Promotion Policies and Procedures for Faculty", "Tenure Policies and Procedures", and "2017-18 eDossier Course Request Form". There are also sections for "Promotion and Tenure Workshops", "eDossier Templates and Format Documents", "eDossier Training and Creation Guide Documents", and "Sabbatical and Leaves of Absence Information". A "Contact Us" section provides information for the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, including the address (1265 Lincoln Drive, Anthony Hall - SAC 4305, Carbondale, Illinois 62901), phone number (618-453-5744), fax number (618-453-1478), and email (provost@siu.edu). Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram are also present. On the right side, there are sections for "Promotion and Tenure University Deadlines" (Friday, November 17, 2017) and "2017-2018 Deadlines To Remember" (eDossier review completed at University level and submitted for Board of Trustees Approval - March 2018). A footer section provides contact information for David L. DiLalla, Associate Provost for Academic Affairs.

The slide is titled "2017-2018 Deadlines" and is part of a presentation. It lists the following key information:

- ❖ Provost Level Deadline: November 17, 2017
- ❖ College Deadline: Will vary by college.
- ❖ Department / School Deadline (Will vary by department/school)
- ❖ College and Department/School deadlines may be driven by operating paper.

At the bottom of the slide, it says "Know Operating Paper Provisions !"

EDOSSIER DEVELOPMENT

- Responsibility for providing complete dossier to Dean rests with the Chair / Director, but this is a shared responsibility.
 - The Faculty member provides information and materials in support of their application
 - The chair/director and Faculty member work together to create the final dossier
- Depending on department/school practice, coordinators may be responsible for:
 - collecting/preparing front matter and collecting letters of evaluation
 - assisting Faculty with the creation of the PDF documents
 - uploading dossier sections to D2L

COORDINATORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

- Requesting eDossier Course Shell from D2L
 - Once link is live, complete request form and submit online
 - ONLY department/school coordinators (chair/director and support staff) may request a course shell
 - No more than two coordinators per dossier at department/school level
 - Faculty members
 - may be given access to D2L course once created, depending on department/school practices and norms
 - may not have access to confidential materials in the dossier
 - Access must be removed BEFORE confidential materials are uploaded
- Providing access to department/school committees
- Requesting the transition from department/school to college level

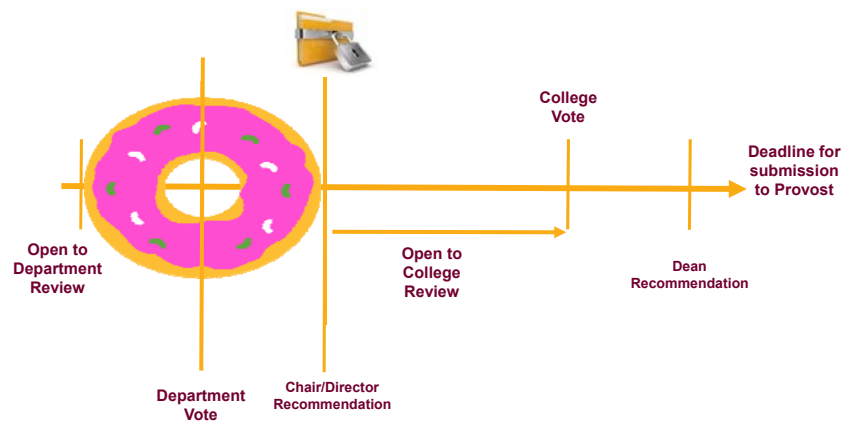

COLLEGE LEVEL COORDINATOR RESPONSIBILITIES

- No more than two coordinators at college level
- Providing access to college committee(s)
- Depending on college practices and norms may be responsible for uploading material to D2L
- Requesting the transition from college to University level

MAINTAINING INTEGRITY

- Digital Dossier is the official Dossier
- All SIUC reviewers should see the same materials
- Paper dossiers should not be utilized for any portion of the official review process
- Supplemental materials may be in paper/hard copy form
 - Department/School and College level reviews only
 - Do not send paper to University (Provost) level
- When is Dossier Locked??

The Tale of the Donut

E-Dossier Structure

- Promotion and Tenure Review Summary Recommendations

UPLOADING TO D2L

- Create the files using the templates first
- Use the eDossier Naming Guide to name the files
 - Provides easy verification that files are in the appropriate D2L location
 - Provides easy confirmation that all files are included
 - Provides consistency for archival purposes
- Drag and Drop files into the appropriate module/sub-module
- Open the file to confirm readability/accessibility
- Save a COMPLETE copy of the final eDossier documents locally
 - Save confidential files separately as appropriate
- You are done!
