

NTT Promotion Standards College of Agricultural Sciences

Teaching

Eligible NTT Faculty in the College of Agricultural Sciences must demonstrate a sustained record of outstanding accomplishment in teaching and pedagogy that may include:

- evidence* of high quality instruction in the classroom or in distance education courses;
- evidence of development and/or implementation of innovative teaching methods;
- evidence of encouragement of student engagement;
- evidence of sustained effort to improve their craft and/or curriculum (including but not limited to assessment).

examples of evidence (ICE results, teaching awards, teaching proposals, letters from colleagues, letters from students, teaching development activities, course and/or curriculum development...).*

Service

If the NTT faculty member has a service assignment, s/he must demonstrate evidence of meritorious service for the member's program, unit, college, institution, field of study, community, etc.

Approved by Dean and Provost on 3/5/2019 following recommendation by College Steering Committee.