PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Course Advisor, Saluki Success Program | Spring 2019–Current

Southern Illinois University Carbondale, Office of the Provost

- Work directly with the SIU Provost to administer the administrative and curricular components, including assessment, of the first-year experience course for all first-year Salukis (~1400 per year)
- Responsible for coordinating curriculum through the semester, ensuring that 50+ sections of the course remain engaging and on schedule; collect reports and assess learning objectives
- Plan multi-party guest visits and co-curricular activities with Advising, Student Health Services, First Saluki Center, Residential Learning, and Center for International Education
- Facilitate weekly meetings; conduct after-action reviews to obtain qualitative feedback for short- and long-term improvements of courses, solicit instructor and learner input to improve learning outcomes
- Chaired hiring committee; onboarded, trained, and supervised 12 NTT during launch year, and ~30 tenured, tenure-track, and NTT instructors each academic year
- Designed master shell for learning management system (D2L) that is deployed across ~60 sections of course per term; use continuous improvement process to improve and automate course YoY
- Revised first-year experience curriculum to focus on professional and career development; revised learning objectives, curated content, and wrote/revised workbook content
- Solicit feedback from all stakeholders annually; improve course YoY with a high satisfaction and improvement among instructors and student services staff
- Built SharePoint and OneNote system to streamline communication among instructors, recruitment, and retention coordinators, teaching assistants, and directors of university units

Director of Undergraduate Studies & Internships | Spring 2018 – Current

Southern Illinois University Carbondale, School of Communication Studies

- Serve on strategic committees: Undergraduate (Chair, 2017–Current), Personnel, Steering, Planning & Development, EAB Navigate Early Warning Committee, First Year Experience Committee
- Spearheaded curricular reorganization, innovation of undergraduate curriculum, and Advising partnerships: developed core curriculum, streamlines specializations, increased class enrollment sizes, decreased administrative intensity, expanded student choice, and improved degree completion time
- Oversaw COVID-19 transitions, including oversight of conversion of all CMST 101 courses to an online format (scaled/converted the OSCQR-reviewed course for deployment across 100+ sections)
- Led effort to secure a mega-donation of $400K to support undergraduate program development
- Led initiatives that delivered over $80,000 in scholarship money to CMST students, $6,000 from new donors in 2019-21 (a 1,533% increase over historical averages)
- Assisted in arranging six articulation 2+2 agreements with Illinois community colleges in < 1 year
- Developed and administered turnaround recruitment strategy that led to 210% YoY increase in students declaring major or minor; including a 330% increase in first-year students in 2020/21, 31% increase in new majors in 2018, 63% increase in new first-year students in 2019
- Conducted focus group and survey research to develop learner/marketing personas of students choosing CMST major; led to improved recruitment/retention advertising and marketing communication

- Initiated “Project Recruit 3%” that uses an inbound marketing strategy to increase conversion of students in lower-level courses into majors; 2022 launched strategy to focus on transfer student recruitment
- Developed strategic marketing plan for CMST social media; in 2018-21, assisted 40+ students through HubSpot training and certification (8+ graduates placed in jobs to date due to program)
- Oversee social media strategy for academic unit; manage two content creators; snapshot of YoY analytics (2019/20): Instagram: +793.5% increase in content interactions, +14.3% growth in followers; Facebook: 1,614% increase in post engagement; 467% increase in followers; 80% YoY average growth rate
- Administer internship program; actively engaged in creating new partnerships with area organizations, prepare MoUs, monitor and evaluate internship quality, assess program
- Developed and launched the Professional Communicator Credential, a badging program designed to drive enrollment into courses and elevate CMST program on LinkedIn
- Oversaw strategy, managed a team of 6 reports, raised sponsorship, and coordinated all activated needed to develop, launch, and deliver BrandU, a one-day professional development event that has featured NYT best-selling authors, award-winning trainers, and early career professionals; delivered over 10 sessions with ~600 unique attendees, ~650 hours of watch hours per year
- Reviewed 10-year history of course enrollment data to develop a predictable 4-year course sequence for the program, crafted user-friendly degree audits
- Led effort to create a predictable curriculum, which has streamlined advising efforts, improved learning pathways, and increased student satisfaction with the program by 23%
- Oversee a significant number of recruitment efforts, including social media and letter-writing campaigns, calling campaigns, high school visits, on-campus visits, CMST’s website redesign; started Gaymer Lounge at Saluki Con (600+ attendees over two yrs.)
- Oversee retention efforts, which includes using EAB Navigate to track “murky middle” students in need of additional support services; intervene by referring students to key services; increased student retention by ~22% YoY; on track for 9% increase in 2022
- Implemented a new faculty pre-advising option for students; planned and delivered first-ever academic and social recognition events for undergraduates
- Started Communication Career Council (C3); organization focuses on co-curricular skills development, retention, and recruitment efforts: www.siu/cmst.org
- Revised online CMST 101 course (Oral Communication) and used continuous improvement processes to enhance learners’ experiences, improve LOs, increase student engagement, decrease course dropouts
- Over two years, developed three online courses toward a five-course online minor in CMST and assisted other faculty in converting to online courses (pre-pandemic); launched online CMST minor in 2021
- Organized multiple recruiting events, including the CMST Day in Morris Library (2018-19, 2021); regularly attend Open Houses, SIU Day, and other activities to recruit students
